

Job description

Job Summary:

Do you enjoy staying active and working with children? KEVA Sports Center in Middleton has a flexible and fun job waiting for you!

Youth sports classes focus on sport fundamentals and are generally designed for beginner to intermediate participants. Most classes follow a 9-week curriculum where a different skill is focussed on each week and the coaches lead the participants in various games and drills to teach and reinforce these skills. Most classes are concluded with a scrimmage that will help the players practice the skills they just learned in a game-like setting.

Coaches are responsible for equipment setup and take-down, explaining drills and games to the participants, giving tips and pointers to the players as they practice, encouraging the players and celebrating their wins with them, managing the group and ensuring that the class is staying on schedule and that the players are engaging in the activities, and organizing the end-of-class scrimmages.

Schedule:

Flexible - classes are held Monday-Thursday 4pm-6pm and Saturdays 9am-12pm. You can decide which classes and days work best for you! There are opportunities for more hours outside of classes in the Youth Department or in other departments for those hoping to earn more.

Work with ages 3-14 years in a variety of sports including soccer, flag Football, basketball, and volleyball.

Qualifications:

No experience coaching? No problem! We'll train you on the various sports, class curriculums, games, drills, and group management. We're looking for reliable coaches who enjoy sports and activity and like working with kids.

This position is also open to applicants under 18.

Compensation:

The wage ranges between $10 an hour for employees who are under 18, have little to no job experience, or have very limited scheduling availability to $16 for individuals who have above-average experience and open availability.

Employees also enjoy a discount on all of our food and beverage products, access to free non-alcoholic beverages, and may claim a free employee play credit for a league of their choosing each session after their initial training period.

Company:

Keva is a social and high-energy company that provides healthy and fun athletic programs for members ages 18 months through adulthood. Keva mainly focusses on bringing the community together through movement. Our Youth Department provides programs for those looking to encourage child development through playing games, improving athletic skills, or just having fun! Athletic excellence is not required to be healthy and social, and Keva provides programs that encourage movement at any skill level. The Youth Department develops curriculums for their sports camps that are based on the needs and wants of children ages 3 and up and are intended to build skills that go beyond the court of field including teamwork, self-esteem, and the simple enjoyment of physical activity.
